

OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

The following pages explain the operation of individual controls. Study and become familiar with their location and function before attempting to start and operate the motorcycle.

INSTRUMENTS AND INDICATOR LAMPS

The instruments are grouped together and mounted above the headlight. The indicator and warning lamps are clustered between the handle mounting clamps.

- Their functions are shown in the table.

