

BREAK-IN

A careful break-in will produce maximum performance and will measurably extend the engine's service life.

During the first 600 miles (1,000 km), do not operate the motorcycle at more than 80% of the lower RED ZONE RPM limit in any gear. Avoid full throttle operation, and do not operate for a long time at one speed.