

BREAK-IN PROCEDURE

During the first 1,000 km (600 miles) operate your new motorcycle so the engine neither pulls laboriously nor exceeds 80% of the maximum rpm in any gear. Avoid full throttle operation, and select your gear changes to spare the engine undue stress. Careful break-in operation during the initial mileage period will measurably extend the service life of the engine.