

- Wait for the engine, the muffler and the exhaust pipe to cool before starting work.

- Engine exhaust fumes contain carbon monoxide and other harmful substances. Do not run the engine in poorly ventilated area such as a closed workshop.

