

For your Safety

Exercise caution when servicing the engine, the exhaust pipe, or the muffler immediately after shutting down the engine. These areas may be extremely hot.

Exhaust fumes contain toxic gases such as carbon monoxide. Do not carry out any maintenance work that requires running the engine in confined, poorly ventilated area.