

-The exhaust pipes and engine unit are hot after running. Take care to avoid burns when inspecting or maintaining the motorcycle directly after the engine has been running.

-Exhaust fumes contain carbon monoxide and other poisonous gases. Start the engine in an open, well-ventilated area. Do not start the engine for inspection/ maintenance within an enclosed garage or places that lack adequate ventilation.

