

Storing the motorcycle

If possible always use a body cover when storing the motorcycle for extended periods. (Make sure that the body cover is placed over the bike after it has cooled down sufficiently). Apply wax over the different areas of the machine that are prone to rust. Remove the battery in order to avoid discharge. Remove the battery connector from the battery if leaving it on the motorcycle.

