

Passenger Handhold

Front Passenger Handhold Adjustment

1. Release the lock lever.
2. Adjust the handhold position so that the passenger can grip the handhold securely in a comfortable riding posture.
3. Secure the lock lever tightly until it contacts the square pipe.

Once the passenger handhold is adjusted correctly, pull it back and forth to make sure it is locked in position.

