

Passenger Handhold

Passenger Handhold

The occupant protective structure (OPS) has a handhold to give a passenger extra support when the vehicle travels over rough or bumpy terrain. Passenger can also brace their feet against the floorboard.

